A Working Peoples' Observance of the Struggles and Goals of

Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.

Just two years ago, April 4, 1968, a hired assassin pulled the trigger... an era ended... lip service and crocodile tears flowed... the fires still smoulder. This April 4th, those who picked up the fallen torch will meet to review the past and plan the future. Join in this United Memorial with others fighting for Justice & Human Rights...
